Laure Fourquet, from France

“Without the OPUS programme I wouldn’t have found my job. The English language course was really helpful in improving my English. I would definitely recommend OPUS to all students, who are looking for a nice part-time job whilst studying English in NZ!”

OPUS Paid Work and Study programme, Auckland, New Zealand

Apply in 5 easy steps

- 1) Request and complete an application form, available from your Kaplan International Colleges representative
- 2) Your Kaplan International Colleges representative will send you a free English test and let you know your current level of English
- 3) We will request an electronic version of your CV written in English
- 4) We will then arrange a Skype video or telephone interview to test your spoken English and suitability for the programme
- 5) Once you have followed the steps above and we have received payment of the programme fees and for any accommodation you wish to book with Kaplan International Colleges, we will send you a booking confirmation and Letter of Acceptance so that you can apply for a student visa if necessary*
